On 1/21/16, the Court confirmed the sale of certain real property in Los Banos, CA, subject to ex parte request to vacate the prior sale. The Court set this status hearing for the filing of the additional bond in the amount of $550,000.00.

Status Report filed 2/11/16 states the increase is not necessary until the closing of the sale of the real property. As of this writing, a certified copy of the order has been left with the title company for that sale, but the date of closing escrow has not been scheduled. There is no reason to believe the transaction will not take place; however, if it should, the personal representative would rather not have already paid for what might turn out to be an unnecessary increase in the amount of the bond. In any event, counsel for the personal representative will inform the probate examiner of the status of the closing before the status hearing takes place.
